WHAT OUR GRADUATES SAY...

“All I can say is that, for me, the RCM proved to be the best possible institution in the world for overall musicianship. In particular, my passion for opera was wonderfully stimulated. Thus, as well as feeling that I'm well prepared for the business of music in the real world, above all, I know that I began to evolve into a professional singer in opera.”

WHAT OUR GRADUATES SAY...

I knew when I stepped onto the stage of the Britten Theatre for my audition that the RCM would be top of my 'wish list' for Masters programmes.

That stage is somewhere I quickly came to love and feel at home, performing multiple times in operas, scenes and for competitions and masterclasses with inspirational singers such as Dame Kiri Te Kanawa, Dame Anne Evans, Rosemary Joshua and Christine Brewer. It was, in fact, through the RCM Lies Askonas Prize that I first met my agent, Keiron Cooke at Askonas Holt.

Nick Sears, my teacher Dinah Harris and the entire staff were instrumental in the kick start of my career, encouraging me in major auditions and competitions, and I still look to them for advice on potential contracts and lots of much needed support!
